

JOHNNY TEST

Voice Talent Biographies

James Arnold Taylor (Johnny Test)

James Arnold Taylor began his career at the age of 16 in his hometown of Santa Barbara, CA, as a stand-up comic and disc jockey. He moved to Los Angeles in 1992 and created more than 8,000 bits that were heard on radio stations worldwide.

Because of Taylor's versatile vocal range, he has had a successful career in every facet of the voice-over industry. In animation, he co-starred with Carrie Anne Moss in "The Animatrix," took over for Michael J. Fox in "Atlantis: Milo's Return," is Obi-Wan Kenobi in "Star Wars: Clone Wars," and has guest starred on numerous cartoons, including Warner Bros. Animation's "What's New Scooby-Doo?," as well as "CodeName: Kids Next Door."

Louis Chirillo (Dukey)

A native of Seattle, Washington, Louis Chirillo's work in animation includes the voice of Ed in "Sitting Ducks," Salem in "Sabrina the Teenage Witch in Friends Forever," Frostbite in "G.I. Joe: Valor vs. Venom," and, more recently, the voice of Ken Kelly in "Being Ian." In addition, Chirillo has added his voice to various video games such as "CSI: Miami," "CSI: Crime Scene Investigation Dark Motives" and the upcoming "Scarface: The World Is Yours."

In front of the camera, Chirillo has made appearances on various television shows, most notably "The Outer Limits," "Dark Angel," "The Chris Isaak Show," "Dead Like Me," "The 4400" and "Stargate SG-1."

Lee Tockar (Eugene "Bling-Bling Boy")

Lee Tockar has lent his voice to more than 50 beloved animated characters on the big and small screens.

Tockar has performed the title roles in the animated series "Yakkity Yak," as well as the lead role in "Darkstalkers" and the role of Snivel in the holiday special "Casper's Haunted Christmas." Lee's impressive roster of recurring roles includes Luger and Romulus in "Silverwing," Callisto and Gassy in "X-Men: Evolution," Mr. Sparks in "Noddy," Dirty Joe in "The Cramp Twins," Ari in "Adventures From The Book of Virtues," Dorn in "Roswell Conspiracies," Sneero in "Walter Melon" and Covert Agent Ravage in "Beast Wars."

Maryke Hendrikse
(Susan Test)

A native of Nassau, Bahamas, Maryke Hendrikse signed with a professional acting agent at 17, and, shortly thereafter, booked her first acting role on "My Secret Identity," followed by many roles in film, television and commercials.

Hendrikse has lent her voice to such productions as "Moville Mysteries," "Beo's Bedroom," "Braceface," "Rescue Heroes," "Gundam Seed Destiny," "Barbie Diaries: Charmed Life" and "Class of the Titans."

Brittney Wilson
(Mary Test)

Brittney Wilson, a 14-year-old 8th grade student, is already an accomplished actress with an extensive list of credits that support her body of work. Wilson has appeared in more than 30 television and radio commercials, including the animation series "MegaMan NT Warrior" and "Hamtaro." She has also lent her voice for the lead role in the animation production "Junkers Come Here," as well as one of the lead voices in the animation feature, "Polly and the Pockets."

Wilson has appeared in guest starring roles on the television series, "Call Of The Wild," "So Weird," as well as a recurring role on "The Ranch" and a lead role on "Romeo!" Wilson was nominated for Hollywood's Young Artist Award and British Columbia's Leo Awards.

Andrew Francis
(Gil)

An accomplished performer, Andrew Francis has a successful career in film, television and animation. Francis has appeared in several television productions, including "Smallville," "Life As We Know It," "The L Word," "The Beltway," "Twilight Zone," "Jeremiah" and "Dark Angel." In film, he has performed in such features as "Final Destination 3," "Agent Cody Banks" and "SuperBabies: Baby Geniuses II."

Francis has also lent his voice to countless animated series, including "MegaMan NT Warrior," "X-Men: Evolution," "Transformers: Armada," "Hot Wheels Highway 35 World Race," "Bionicle: Mask of Light," "UBO's Ultimate Book of Spells," "Sabrina," "Dragon Ball Z," "Robocop: Alpha Commando" and "Robocop: The Animated Series."

Kathleen Barr
(Lila Test)

With hundreds of animated productions to her credit, Kathleen Barr has performed the roles of some of television's most memorable animated characters.

Barr's episodic credits include various roles in Warner Bros. Animation's "Krypto the Superdog," as well as roles in "Class of the Titans," "Dragon Booster," "Finley the Fire Engine," "Hot Wheels Highway 36 World Race," "He-Man and the Masters of the Universe" and "Dragon Tales." Barr has also performed multiple roles in "Ed, Edd, 'n Eddy," "Noddy," "Weird-Ohs," "Salty's Lighthouse," "Littlest Pet Shop" and "Conan: The Adventurer."

Barr has also lent her voice to many animated specials, including the Barbie movies and was narrator and the voice of Kasuka in "Stellaluna," as well as Sweetberry and Kimono in "My Little Pony."

Ian Corlett
(Hugh Test)

For over two decades, Ian Corlett has been serving up unique voice characterizations for animation projects of every genre.

Corlett began his career voicing radio and TV commercials and soon found himself cast in animated features and series such as the Emmy Award-nominated "The Wacky World of Tex Avery," "What's With Andy?," "Dragon Tales" and "Beast Wars."

Corlett's keen sense of comedy, along with his strong feel for character and story structure combine to make him one of the busiest animation-specific writers in Canada. His work can be seen in such diverse series as "The Adventures of Paddington Bear," "Rescue Heroes" and the Emmy Award-nominated "Rolie Polie Olie," for which he won the 1999 Gemini Award for Best Writing In a Children's Series.

Bill Mondy
(Mr. Black)

Bill Mondy's animation work includes numerous characters with regular roles in "Tonka Joe," "Gundum Wing," and many others. Acting in film and television for more than 15 years, Mondy can be seen in such films as "Miracle and I-Spy" and "Gray Matters." Mondy has appeared in guest starring roles on some 20 live-action series, as well as performed leading roles in TV movies. This year marks his fourth season as Deputy Roscoe in "The Dead Zone."

Scott McNeil
(Mr. White)

Hailing from Vancouver, Canada, by way of Brisbane, Australia, Scott McNeil started acting at the age of 3 and has not stopped since. Spanning more than a decade, and including more than 70

Among McNeil's other voice credits are Warner Bros. Animation's "Krypto the Superdog," "Tom and Jerry Tales," "Baby Looney Tunes" and "¡Mucha Lucha!," as well as "He-Man," "Yakkity Yak," "Transformers: Armada," "Reboot," "Mummies Alive," "Conan: The Adventurer," "The Wacky World of Tex Avery," "Dragon Tales," "Street Fighter" and "Caspers Haunted Christmas."

Equally successful in film and television, McNeil has starred in the feature films "Scooby-Doo 2: Monsters Unleashed," "Sleeping with Strangers" and "Sleeping Dogs."